Press release BODY ART SHOW 2016.

18.11.2016

On Friday evening Bratislava was full of colours. The remarkable show has surpassed all expectations of both audience and organizers.

The audience has experienced unique performance of brilliant mastery of human bodies enshrouded into colours at the third Slovak BODY ART SHOW.

Grand Hotel Pressburg has been host to more than 300 enthusiastic onlookers and the best body painters from Slovakia and from abroad. Professional and amateur public has been watching with amazement unforgettable performance of artists painting unusual pieces of art on naked bodies of models.

Untraditional art of bodypainting dresses human bodies into colours. The first attempts of bodypainting were carried out in the first half of the last century, but real blossom began in the 90s of the 20th century. At present bodypainting is fun and art all in one, which was brought to excellence by its creators. Decorating of body with paints is inherently linked with nakedness and it provides special flavour to this artistry. Any other piece of art cannot provoke and fascinate as much as beautiful shapes of human body dressed up in colours.

Art unappreciated and glorified, bodies naked but still dressed up, reality and perfect illusion from the Fantasy empire were performed to the audience by the bodypainters Marta Gejdošová, Maya Urbanová, Anička Kružliaková, Viktória Hádovská, Zuzana Botková, Nadja Hluchovsky, Tibor Vrtík, Ján Xavier Melíšek and Ivan Gaštanko Planka, assistants Mária Behilová, Jana Kubányiová, Miroslava Švecová. Crowded hall was breathlessly watching their professionally painted and performed pieces of art, in the stories full of colours and emotions.

Extraordinary evening was enriched with original programme: Painting of a model right in front of the eyes of audience, unique bodypainting UV show with Kristína

Slováková, performance from the musical Cats of the theatre Nová Scéna – Romana Orlická, Ján Džonald Minárik and Natália Hatalová, singers performance of Patrik Vyskočil, Natália Hatalová, Marcela Molnárová and Albert Herrera, girls group Girls from the Moon or performance of Latino dancing duo Hector Loco and Diablita. Part of the programme was the fashion show of Lombardi Fashion House and Bortolami Collection.
